Dear Professor Lederberg,

Thank you very much for the references! They will be most useful to me.

I send you a copy of an article in the Swedish Medical Journal about the indigenous microflora of man. It is based on a lecture I read for the students to become what we call a "docent", that is a University teacher. I am sorry it is in Swedish, but there is a summary in English and most of the references are in English language. Please, do not look at my portrait, it is awful, just a 50 cent photo taken in a subway station.

I hope you will have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
